THE CASE AGAINST PATRICK MR. OSBORNE SUMS UPWHAT HAS BEEN

SHOWN SO FAR. The Assistant District Attorney Reviews the Evidence Adduced at the Hearings to Date

and Outlines What He Proposes to Show. Assistant District Attorney Osborne and Deputy Assistant Garvan spent yesterday figuring out how much new information ugainst Albert T. Patrick has come to them in the hearings on the charge that he murbefore Justice Jerome. Mr. Osborne said that he had learned some things which he didn't know before. For obvious reasons he wouldn't make them public except in one It is usual in granting a letter to unite with except to post the forfeit money. Mr. Law-

Yet he holds general assignments that the usual form of letter has been given incon-istent with the will. Jones has said to all, which does not reflect upon the standing that he general assignments were for use as a lub against any persons who might be of the applicant. Prof. Witthaus will probably make a supplement ry report on the condition of Rice's internal organs. It is said that this is to be a final report and that it will confirm Jones's store of the use of chloroform and mercury to kill Rice.

Mr. Osborne says that this much has been testiled to that on the day after Rice's death Moncay. Patrick tried to have cashed cheel's dated the Saturday previous; that Patrick was never Rice's lawyer, because such has been the testimony of Jones and Mrs. Francis; that Patrick offered for probate a will in Patrick's favor purporting to have been signed by Rice; that Jones saw Patrick before Rice died; that Jones saw Patrick before Rice died; that Jones saw Patrick before Rice died; that Jones saw him, and later telephoned again to him at 8 P. M.; that Patrick asked Dr. Curre on Saturday night concerning Rice's health when there was no need for such inquirs, that Patrick said the Holt case had heen settled for $250,000.

Mr. Osborne says that he will show that the Holt case has never been settled and that Patrick was never counsel in it; that it is zue, as Jones says, that he telephoned Patrick twice on Sunday night he will have two elephone girls each from different centrals, who will produce records of the calls), that as Mrs. Francis testified, Patrick's telephone, was put in place in July and removed immediately after Rice's death; that Patrick's telephone was put in place in July and removed immediately after Rice's death; that Patrick's telephon was put in place in July and removed immediately after Rice's death; that Patrick's telephon made affidayit in Texas that he sent from Texas to New York to his brother, chloroform and laudanum in July and in August, sending the packages by American Express; and that Patrick used mercuri

Mr. Osborne had these questions on tap yesterday which he said indicated motive: If Jones killed Rice it was to Patrick's advantage wasn't it?

advantage wasn't it?

Patrick got everything—he had it taken away from him later—and Jones got nothing.

He even lost his job. Was Jones acting as an eleenosynary institution to put Rice out of Patrick's way for Patrick's benefit without teling Patrick what he was going to do?

Why was Patrick destroying papers that night?

Wasn't Short Patrick's man?

A notary public could administer oaths just as well and just as bindingly as a commissioner of deeds for Texas. Why was Short made commissioner of deeds for Texas at Patrick's instigation?

Wasn't Short Patrick's man? Wasn't Meyers a clerk in Patrick's office?
Wasn't Dr. Curry Patrick's family physician? Whose favor was the will drawn in?

Ackermann of the Crescent shipyard was driving with his wife past Magie and North driving with his wife past Magie and North avenues to-day they saw a woman lying on a bank beside the road apparently in great agony, although she was in a semi-unconscious condition. Her dress was disarranged. Mr. Ackermann hurried to his house and telephoned for an ambulance and then to police headquarters. He drove back again to the spot with restoratives, but he found the woman dead. Morguekeeper Schmidt took charge of the body. The woman is thought to be Mrs. Brady, the wife of a saloonkeeper in Washington avenue. Riverhead, L. I., April 5.—The making of a temperance town out of Riverhead at the election last Tuesday is creating high finks among the residents here. Riverhead is the county seat of Suffolk county and the county fair has always been held here. Whether the fair will be held here again is a question. It is laid down as law that a fair can't be run on pink lemonade and peanuts. All the hoteleverse have made arrangements to close and an and several hard-fought races. Summary:

back those who have been induced to sign with the other side and take chances on the courts declaring the prior contracts void. The news comes from Philadeiphia that President Ebbets of the Brooklyn National League Club has won back Sheesard from the Baltimore American League Club. Since signing with Manager Mactraw Sheesard has had doubts of the legality of his action. He got an opinion from Lawyer John to Johnson yesterday. Mr. Johnson told him that if he had signed a contract with Baltimore after receiving notice of last year's contract with the option clause, his new contract was unlawful and void. Sheekard at once notified President Ebbets that he would play for Brooklyn. The New Yorks have not been so lucky. Pitcher Mercer was in town yesterday. He is one of those who has jumped to the American League and rumors have been affont that he is undecided about Joining the Washington team. Mercer said, however, that he had signed with Washington and just came here to see the boys. Before leaving he had a talk with Manager Davis, which may lead to negotiations for his services being reopened.

Pitcher Carrick, who had a conference with Manager Davis on Thursday might, promised to give a definite answer as to his plans in a day or two. Carrick says that the terms offered by the Washington club of the American League are $10,000 decosited for him in a bank, to be drawn from bimonthly for two years and an extra $500 for signing a contract. He demands of the New York club a three-year contract at $3,500 a year and $500 for signing. This it is not probable he will get. Manager Davis said yesterday that the chances for Carrick signing are about even.
